My Account

- Three kinds of status related to you

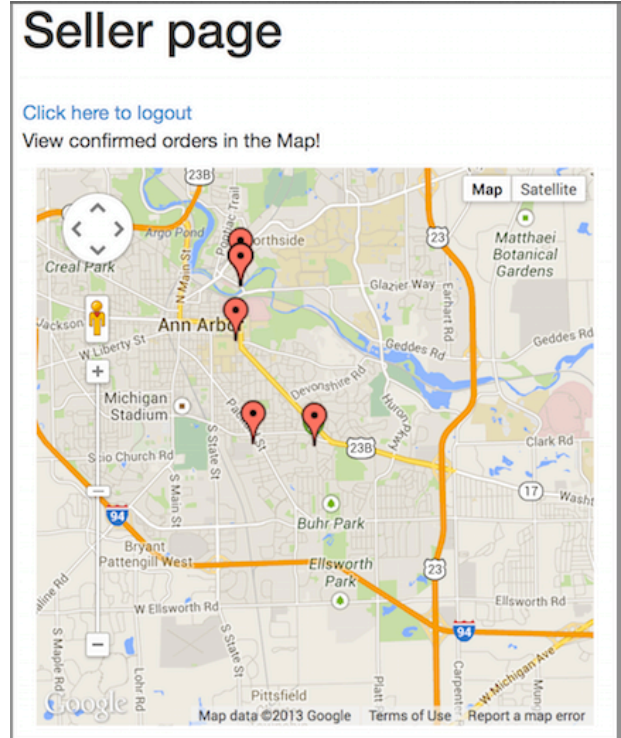

- You can click 'My Account' button in navigation bar to see orders status any time

Login Seller Page

- Lead to seller login page
- Because we recently only have two companies, we have two identity to login. When the password is “seller1”, login as company1; when the password is “seller2”, login as company2. One can only see orders for company1 if login as seller1, and only see orders for company2 if login as seller2.

Seller Page-view order

- After a successful login(in this case we login as company1), the page goes to sellerpage, where the seller can view all the undelivered orders on a Google map.
